THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA COMPLIANCE PROGRAM
GUIDELINES FOR PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES AND THEIR STUDENT HOSTS

The following guidelines have been established to ensure that the hosting of prospective student-athletes is conducted in a manner consistent with NCAA and University regulations.

Student-athletes who serve as a host must understand that each and every one of them is an official representative of the Department of Athletics and The University of Iowa. Therefore, appropriate conduct is expected at all times.

Prospective student-athletes’ initial visits to our campus also provide an opportunity for them to see what behaviors are expected of our student-athletes.

1. Underage drinking (below 21) is illegal in the State of Iowa. Prospective student-athletes are not allowed to indulge in this activity. It is the student host's responsibility to discourage and report transgressions of this law.

2. If a prospective student athlete is of legal age (21) and may enter a local bar, it is the student host's responsibility to ensure that the prospective student-athlete is aware that alcohol abuse will NOT be tolerated. Prospects who are not yet 19 years old are prohibited from being in a bar after 10:00 p.m.

3. The University of Iowa will not tolerate sexual harassment by anyone associated with our athletic teams. Student hosts must be aware of the University's prohibition of this type of activity and work to ensure that prospects they are hosting conduct themselves appropriately.

4. Prospective student-athletes and student hosts may be provided up to $30.00 per day for entertainment expenses. It is the host's responsibility to handle the monies involved. At no time may cash be given to a prospective student-athlete.

5. A prospective student-athlete may not have contact with representatives of the University's athletics interests. It is the responsibility of the student host to ensure that such contact does not take place when they are entertaining prospective student-athletes.

6. It is the responsibility of the University to ensure the safety and well being of prospective student-athletes visiting our campus. At the same time, it is incumbent upon prospective student-athletes and their student hosts to avoid any situations or activities that would jeopardize their safety or would be against NCAA, University or local laws, rules and regulations.

7. All entertainment of prospective student-athletes should be confined to the University community. Student hosts responsible for ensuring that Prospects do not leave the Iowa City-Coralville area during their visits.

8. Prospective student-athletes will have a curfew of 12:30 a.m. unless they are participating in activities supervised or arranged by Iowa coaching staff.

These guidelines have been established to ensure that each prospective student-athlete's visit to our campus is a quality one. Your compliance with these guidelines is absolutely necessary and greatly appreciated. Incidents contrary to these guidelines may result in a decision by the University to decline to admit or grant financial aid to a prospective student-athlete and also may result in penalties to student-athletes up to and including dismissal from the team.
